

Quality policy

Hemi Heating provides sustainable and energy efficient solutions which secure our customers heating needs while minimizing costly interruptions in their production. Hemi Heating is solution oriented, innovative and perceptive in order to assure our customers maximum satisfaction.

With vast experience and highly competent and engaged colleagues, we secure the quality and demands of our customers.

The development of both coworkers and work procedures is constant, which directly contributes to a steady increase in our work performance.

In Hemi Heatings quality management, the coworker's participation and well-being is of utmost importance.

Hemi Heating strives to support a sustainable future for our environment by deliberately Putting high demands on suppliers, stakeholders and our colleagues.

Henry Kvael
VD